WE DO NOT SUPPLY TAKE-OUT CONTAINERS

Japanese ramen is a food in which balance and timing are essential, thus it is a food which needs to be enjoyed immediately. For this reason we do not have take-out containers at Mensho. If you cannot finish and are concerned about wasting food, or feel it is essential that you take your leftovers with you, you may provide your own container.

Thank you

ALLERGY DISCLAIMER

Our ramen may contain any or all of the following ingredients: Chicken, Pork, Skipjack Tuna, Mackerel, Clams, Oysters, Mussels, Kelp, Mushrooms, Bamboo Shoots, Kale, Onions, Garlic, Ginger, Wheat Flour, Nuts, Raw Egg. If you have any concerns, please consult with one of our servers.

Japanese ramen contains high amounts of sodium, oil, and very rich broth, which could cause an issue to people with sensitive stomachs. Please be advised.

We hope to provide to our customers delicious and authentic in-house ramen. Ramen is based on the balance and harmony of five main elements, and is meant to be enjoyed immediately after being prepared by the chef. It is for this reason that we have a no take-out policy. We ask for your understanding. Thank you.
